STAY AFLOAT,
DON'T DRINK & BOAT!
bdept.cgaux.org
Boat responsibly:
Don't drink and boat!
facebook.com/RecreationalBoatingSafety
twitter.com/USCGAux
Alcohol use is the leading factor in fatal boating accidents.
Wait at least an hour per drink before operating a boat.
There is NO safe threshold for drinking and operating a boat.
It is illegal to drink and operate a boat in all U.S. states.
Intoxicated operators are 10 times as likely to die in accidents.
The federal blood-alcohol limit to operate a boat is .08%.

Sources: U.S. Coast Guard Boating Safety Division
National Safe Boating Council
National Association of State Boating Law Administrators

This message brought to you by the U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary.
bdept.cgaux.org